She HAS DISAPPEARED.

The summer girl in beauty's pride,
No longer climbs the mountain side.In rural lanes or meadows green No more she beautifies the scene.Her crimson parasol no more Is seen beside the ocean's shore.The russet shoes are put away, The dress of Julie and ribbon gay.Vacation past, her trim parasol gone, She is the summer girl no more.In apron white and cap of lace, She wears the restaurant door grace.And one daily hears her shout, Shout ham and eggs, chops, roast beef, Rare!

WOMAN'S WORLD.

Matters of Interest to the Intelligencer's Lady Readers.

Mrs. Ellen Snodgrass, a lady in Wickton, a town in Yorkshire, England, has started a new industry. She employs a new industry. She employs a number of women in darning stockings and socks, and sends a woman's garment to a shop in the neighborhood to be sewed up. She is at work on a machine for the purpose of darning, which will enable her to extend her operations.

A Complete Bridal Ornament.

Once a Week.

and the neighborhood custom ordains that brides wear a gold bracelet and cuff, and/or, a pair of her body.

The case puzzled the doctors. My daughter used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it restored her health to a remarkable point, as she has never had so much as a pleuritic attack since taking this medicine."

Time to certify that after having been sick for twelve years with every disease known to man, I have been treated by several physicians with great success. Had I not been so ill, I would not have been more or less respect, and think I am nearly well, having taken many bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.—Maria Ludwigsen

"Puzzled The Doctors."

MOST of the cases cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla have been given up by the regular practice. Physicians are recommending this medicine more than ever, and with satisfactory results.

Dr. M. Surgeon, Lowell, Mass., says:

"After years of my health being impaired, I have been greatly relieved by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it restored my health to a remarkable point, as she has never had so much as a pleuritic attack since taking this medicine."

A Love of a Gown.

New York World.

She was reprimanded in natural robin's egg which Miss Mackay wore at a reception in Paris not long since, suggested an idea to one of New York's best fashion houses.

The percentage of death is very great among canary birds, he says, and it occurred to him to contract with other fanciers for any canary birds that might die within a specified time.

He hunted up a fashionable modiste and found her ready to help him scheme. She picked out a white tulle and ribbed cotton muslin for a lining, and selected a lace for the bodice.

Young hogs will do damage in the orchard, and will pick up all the wormy apples and keep the clover from killing out the weeds from taking possession of the orchard.
